About the META Mentor Program

META is the Spanish word for "goal." The letters stand for Mentoring, Educating, Training and Advising. The META Mentor Program is designed to recruit, encourage and support bilingual and/or bicultural individuals in the SJSU School of Library and Information Science.

META program goals:

- To provide students with guidance and coaching from practicing librarians
- To enable students to learn more about the library profession
- To foster and promote the development of library service to the Latino community

Activities are coordinated by a steering committee comprised of representatives from both REFORMA and SJSU SLIS.

About REFORMA

Founded in 1971 as an affiliate of the American Library Association, REFORMA has lobbied to increase the Latino representation in the profession, to increase support for Spanish language and Latino collection development, and to raise national awareness of the informational and service needs of Latinos.

REFORMA provides local and national scholarships to library school students who share the organization's goals.

About SJSU SLIS

In support of the San Jose State University Mission, the School of Library and Information Science (SJSU SLIS) educates professionals and develops leaders who organize, manage and enable the effective use of information and ideas in order to contribute to the well-being of our communities.

SJSU SLIS is the largest graduate MLIS program in the world with offices located on the San Jose State campus and also at California Statue University, Fullerton campus. SJSU SLIS was nationally ranked in 2006 by US News and World Report, including #1 e-learning service provider in the discipline and #5 in the U.S. for school library media credential program specialization.

SJSU SLIS is fully accredited by the American Library Association.
